End-Use/User Declaration

In accordance with EnerMech Group Limited and its affiliates and subsidiaries ("EnerMech") corporate compliance policy and the relevant export control legislation, it is necessary to ensure that our customers understand and abide by all applicable export controls and related laws. Accordingly, EnerMech kindly requests that your company certify in writing that it is in compliance with the laws and regulations as laid out below.

Export Control Law Compliance

1. It is the policy of EnerMech to request end-use and end-user information prior to the export of its products. The undersigned hereby certify that the equipment/products acquired/purchased and or rented will not be exported, reexported, sold, transferred, diverted, rented or otherwise disposed of in violation of relevant laws and regulations including: (a) US Export Administration Regulations and the International Traffic in Arms Regulations (ITAR); (b) applicable EU export control regulations, sanctions and embargoes administered; (c) applicable US sanctions and embargoes administered by the US Department of Treasury; (d) or any applicable foreign laws and regulations

2. Particular emphasis is to be placed upon the end use of the equipment/products acquired/purchased where there is any risk however small that this could end up in or being used in connection with the Islamic Republic of Iran, Syria, Iraq, Libya, Sudan, Cuba, Afghanistan, North Korea, Russia, Ukraine & Serbia and any other country specified in accordance with the Office of Foreign Asset Control sanctions.

3. The undersigned hereby certifies that the products acquired from EnerMech will be used by the following end – user for the following end – use(s) only:
